

INHIBITOR-RELATED BOOKS/BROCHURES

- 1. World's First Book on Inhibitors: Managing Your Child's Inhibitor
Written by Laureen A. Kelley with Paul Clement, each of whom has a child with hemophilia, this 300+ page book provides everything you need to know about tackling inhibitors, from risk factors for developing inhibitors, to pain management, to product choices, to ITI and everyday living (www.kelleycom.com).
- 2. Facts About Inhibitors
Distributed by HANDI and the National Hemophilia Foundation from a grant from Grifols.
- 3. The Great Inhibinator
By Chris Perretti Barnes, Illustrations by Michael Graham, produced by BioRx (children's book, ages 3-15). Reprinted 2011.
- 4. All About Inhibitors
By Grifols, a children's booklet that will help the young inhibitor patient learn about what it means to have an inhibitor and answer questions about it (2008). Also available in Spanish.
- 5. Inhibitors in Hemophilia A: What Patients and Families Need to Know
Overview of hemophilia topics and what can be done. Printed and distributed by Grifols (www.grifols.com). Also available in Spanish.
- 6. Management of Inhibitors in Patients with Hemophilia A: Information for Healthcare Professionals
By Louis M. Aledort, M.D. Revised December 2008. Also available in Spanish.
- 7. Changing the Possibilities in Hemophilia
A series by Novo Nordisk (2010). Making Things A Little Easier brochure: Teens with Inhibitors. Also available in Spanish.

INHIBITOR-RELATED ARTICLES

- 8. Inhibitors in Hemophilia: A Primer
By Donna M. DiMichele, MD, Primer vol 7. Revised and Reprinted April, 2008.
- 9. Everything You Always Wanted to Know About Prophylaxis, PORTs, and Immune Tolerance
PowerPoint presentation by Amy Shapiro, MD

- and Kathy Bosma, RN. Presented at the NHF Conference, 2003.
- 10. Factor VII Product Treats Brain Hemorrhages in Inhibitor Patients
An article by Gina Shaw, published in Hemaware magazine (February, 2011).
 - 11. When to Suspect an Inhibitor
By Laurie Kelley, Inhibitor Insights in PEN newsletter (February, 2011) and sponsored by Novo Nordisk Inc.
 - 12. Inhibitors in Haemophilia A: The Role of vWF/FVIII Concentrates: A Meeting Report
By S. Kaveri, A. Gringeri, M. Heisel-Kurth and W. Kreuz in Haemophilia, the official journal of the World Federation of Hemophilia. Reprinted 2009.

ARTICLES FROM HEMOPHILIA.ORG

- 13. How Do You Know If You Have an Inhibitor?
- 14. Prognosis for Inhibitor Patients
- 15. Treatment for Inhibitors
- 16. Test Results
- 17. Why Some Patients Develop Inhibitors
- 18. Who is At Risk for Developing Inhibitors?
- 19. The Challenge of Inhibitors

VIDEO

- 20. Inhibitor Bypassing Agents for Hemophilia, Novo Seven RT

PRODUCT INFORMATION

- 21. Alphanate®: Antihemophilic Factor (Human)
Developed by Grifols. Product monograph/brochure and package insert available.
- 22. NovoSeven® (recombinant activated clotting factor VII rFVIIa)
Developed by Novo Nordisk. Product monograph/brochure and package insert available.
- 23. FEIBA® (anti-Inhibitor Coagulant Complex)
Developed by Baxter Healthcare Corporation. Product monograph/brochure and package insert available.